Student Right-To-Know -

Student completion & graduation rates are published annually in our Academic Catalog.

The four-year average of the graduation rate of Family of Faith College students is 54%. This means that 54% of the students who started degree or certificate programs at Family of Faith College between the years of 1998 and 2001 completed these programs within 150% of the normal time of study. These rates are published in compliance with the Student Right-to-Know Act. (Family of Faith College Academic Catalog, 2009-2010, p. 24)

Drug Free Campus Act -

Students always have access to information regarding alcohol and drug abuse awareness. Please see Elaine Phillips or Rhonda Gaines regarding this material.
